MISSED FIELD GOALS—None.

move inside the 5, they used a steady diet of Maxwell Moore rushes to score.
Midway through the fourth quarter, however, the Colts stood up and forced a Pittsburgh field goal when the Steelers gave Moore the ball — on second-and-1 and again on third-and-1.

"That was big," Dungey said. "They ran the same plays that they scored on before, and we had one little error. ... Everybody knew what the play was going to be and we came off and stuffed it. That was a big momentum play to hold them to 3 there."
Moore scored twice from the 1 in the first half.
"They ran the same running play six times (in goal-line situations)," defensive lineman Eric Foster said. "It was and first time since Sept. 29, 1968. They

"Forty years is kind of cool," receiver Anthony Gonzalez said. "I had no idea. At this point, that's great, but we need to win for the current team. So it was big in that respect."

BIG BEN MOVES UP: Roethlisberger moved into second place on the Steelers' all-time passing yardage list, ahead of Kordell Stewart.
He has 13,359 yards, or fewer than half as many yards as Terry Bradshaw's 27,989 yards from 1970-83. This is Roethlisberger's fifth season.

Wide receiver Hines Ward had a season-high nine passes for 116 yards, his first 100-yard game since Nov. 5, 2006, against Denver.
This was the 17th 100-yard game of his career, the second-most in Steelers

GAME NOTES: The Colts said their own in-game report that WR Marvin Harrison sustained a concussion was inaccurate. ... Steelers RB Willie Parker (shoulder) missed his fifth game in the last six, left tackle Marvel Smith missed a fourth consecutive game with back discomfort and linebacker LaMarr Woodley was out with an injured calf. ... Manning had not been sacked in three games until being sacked twice. Pittsburgh came into the game with a league-leading 32 sacks. ... Hines Ward made nine catches for 116 yards, with his 41-yard reception leading to Moore's second TD run. ... Roethlisberger has 8 interceptions in his last 10 quarters.
